FROM WASHINGTON.

An important movement from the eastern part of the state of Washington to the Edmonton district appears to have commenced. The large delegation of last week is being followed by a much larger one this week. These are evidently not people looking merely for a cheap trip, but people who want locations and know a good country when they see it. The reason for this movement is altogether different from that from Dakota. In the case of Dakota the country had proved a failure, and people had to get out as best they could. In the case of Washington it appears that people have flocked in in numbers greater than the limited agricultural area will accommodate. This has caused the land to rise quickly in value and gives the opportunity to those who desire to move to realize at fair figures. Satisfactory and desirable as the immigration from Dakota has been, it is altogether likely that that from eastern Washington will be still more satisfactory, in that the people will have more means, and are more inclined for mixed farming than pure wheat raising. The only difficulty in the way is that, although the distance from Eastern Washington to Edmonton is much less than from Dakota, the railroad communication is not direct. To go around by all rail makes the trip unnecessarily long and expensive, while to come direct involves a link of steamboating on the Columbia from the Great Northern to the C. P. R. at Revelstoke, which is both expensive and inconvenient, especially for the transport of stock and effects. Although the necessary railway connection cannot be made at once, it is to be hoped that the C. P. R. will see that its interests lie in reducing the cost of transport over this route to the lowest point. The C. P. R. helped very largely to fill up the state of Washington by the very low rates which it gave to through passengers. It can now do itself and this country far more good by giving proportionately low rates to people desiring to leave Washington for the Northwest.

A meeting took place at Yorkton, on the 14th, with a large number present, in connection with the contest in Wallace, Mr. Neilson, J. P., in the chair. Speeches were made by Messrs. Haultain, Cayley, Insinger, McNutt, Campbell, M. L. A. for Whitewood, and Davidson, M. L. A. The meeting lasted four hours.

Mr. Justice Wetmore, the commissioner to investigate the charges against Commissioner Herchmer, has recently handed in his report, and it is now before the council.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, OCTOBER 31, 1892

NOTICE.

Patrons of the BULLETIN are hereby respectfully reminded that volume 14 closes with this issue, and that all accounts for advertising and job work become due on this date. All accounts will be rendered at once, and it is particularly requested that they be settled without delay, as the proposed improvement and enlargement of the paper to keep it well up with the changing times necessitates a very heavy cash outlay for plant and material. Subscription accounts, the bulk of which also became due on this date, are payable strictly in advance. Since commencing the semi-weekly issue it has become absolutely necessary that the free and easy method of former years be changed to one of advance payments, as the only method upon which the paper can be made to pay.

EXECUTIVE DUTIES.

The strangest thing about the recent turn over of executives in Regina is that throughout the whole of the Territories no newspaper champions the case or cause of the victors, and only one, the Regina Leader, or perhaps two, if the Prince Albert Times can be called a paper, attacks the policy of the defeated party. The question upon which the House voted against Mr. Haultain, the representation of Saskatchewan in the executive, is never alluded to, for no one has more reason to know than the men who voted for the motion, that there was no reason in it. One objection, and one only, that can, by any stretch of imagination, be called an intelligent objection has been publicly made against any action or inaction by Mr. Haultain. That is the charge that he fell short of his duty in not undertaking on behalf of the executive the preparation and initiation of all important legislation in the assembly. This charge was made against him by his opponent and successor at a time when Mr. Haultain was debarré from replying, and has since been reiterated in newspaper interviews by the same gentleman; always as a reason to climb into office over Mr. Haultain's shoulders. As a matter of fact, under the arrangement whereby Mr. Haultain took office during the session of 1891, there were several conditions agreed to by all the members of the assembly, including Mr. Cayley, (except perhaps Messrs. Brett and Betts) differing materially from those existing in an ordinary responsible executive. The first of these conditions was that, in order to save expense to the country, only one member of the executive should reside at Regina, and he alone should receive a salary, the other members being only paid travelling expenses and an allowance when called to Regina. As a consequence of this arrangement it was agreed that it would be unfair, as it was unnecessary, to compel members of the executive to go through the expense of an election contest upon taking a seat in the executive, as is the rule in other responsible executives. As a further consequence it was still further agreed that as the members of the executive would not be together sufficiently often to admit of their agreeing upon a policy on all legislative matters the burden of preparing general legislation should not be placed upon them, and that the preparation and introduction of such legislation should go on as before. This was distinctly understood by every member of the House before Mr. Haultain accepted office. On doing so he definitely announced that these lines would be followed and particularly mentioned that while the executive would be responsible for all financial legislation it would not, owing to the conditions above mentioned and the agreement already arrived at, be responsible for the preparation or introduction of general legislation. To these conditions Mr. Cayley offered no objection, and professed to give Mr. Haultain his hearty support. Making charges against Mr. Haultain for action with which he himself fully agreed is a fair specimen of the gentleman's political tactics, which might pass current as smartness amongst blacklegs, but will certainly fall short before an intelligent electorate.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

A MEETING of directors of the agricultural society was held at C. Young's office, on Saturday afternoon, to settle all complaints made about the exhibition. J. F. Adamson pointed out that W. H. Stephens had shown two samples of the same kind of grain and taken first and second prizes for same. The directors decided that in future such would not be allowed. W. H. Stephens complained that J. C. C. Bremner had shown horses in the ring without ropes, which is against the rules. Bremner acknowledged having done so without knowing of the rules. The points and prizes for the horses so shown were deducted from his prize list. There was also a complaint that he had shown a horse which did not belong to him; this was thoroughly explained and the directors were satisfied that the horse did belong to Bremner. J. C. C. Bremner complained that W. H. Stephens had shown some pigs that did not belong to him; it was said the pig belonged, at the show time, to C. Gallagher. C. D. T. Becher gave evidence to the effect that he heard Gallagher tell several people that the pigs shown by Stephens were his (Gallagher's.) This case was postponed on account of Mr. Gallagher being out of town. M. McCauley, J. F. Adamson and C. Young were appointed a committee to draw up a regular code of rules for the society, to be submitted at the next directors' meeting for future use. The next meeting will be held when the government grant is received.

The Scandinavian Canadian, of Winnipeg, is now issued weekly.

Henry Fry has been appointed land commissioner of the Manitoba Northwestern railway.

The railway from Calgary to Macleod will be taken over by the C. P. R. on November 1st. Two trains a week will be run.

It is estimated that there are 8,900 Chinese in Canada, of whom 3,000 are in Victoria, 500 in Vancouver and 600 in New Westminster.

Regina correspondence of the Free Press says some dismissals have taken place from the local staff of Indian officials. The names are not mentioned.

An electric railroad is being started between Chicago and St. Louis, 248 miles, which is expected to carry passengers from city to city in three hours.

Because Mr. Haultain says that the $4,000 appropriated by the Cayley executive for immigration work is not a sufficient amount to be valuable, the Regina Leader accuses him of opposing immigration work. This is the usual Leader logic.

Jas. F. Doran, of Lachine, Quebec, is applying for a divorce from his wife, Mary Augusta Wood, daughter of the late chief justice Wood, of Winnipeg, now in Paris, France, on the ground of adultery and desertion. The lady in the case secured a Chicago divorce from Mr. Doran some years ago to marry a French count.

At the Hochelaga nomination on October 22nd, Chapleau said that if parliament refused remedial school legislation to the Roman Catholics of Manitoba it would be a breach of federal compact and the whole question of confederation would have to be re-opened. He, at the same time, indicated his early retirement from the ministry.

The New Brunswick elections are as follows: Government—St. John County, Dunn; Albert, Emerson; Westmorland, Smith; Woodbury, Wells; Carlton, Connell and Dibble; Charlotte, Mitchell, Hill, O'Brien and Russell; Sunbury, Harrison; Queens, Petherington and Ferris; Kings, White, Scoville and Fletchly; Ristigouche, Mott and Liblais; Northumberland, Tweedie, O'Brien, Burchell and Robinson. After arrival at Indian Head, the exhibits will be rearranged according to the requirements of the World's Fair Commissioners and forwarded to Chicago, where they will be taken charge of by the Canadian Commissioners.

All exhibits will be insured by Government and returned after the Exposition closes to the Exhibitors free of cost. Freight on all Exhibits will be paid by Government.

Intending Exhibitors may obtain all necessary information connected with the forwarding, etc., of Exhibits by corresponding with the Executive Committee, Government Offices, Regina.

GENERAL NEWS.

Prince Albert is preparing to illustrate itself in the Saturday Globe.

Chas. Mair, at one time of Prince Albert, has opened a store in Kelowna, West Kootenay.

H. S. Cayley, chief of the Northwest executive, has been appointed a member of the board of education.

It is possible that Clifford Sifton, attorney-general of Manitoba, will oppose Hon. T. M. Daly on the latter offering for re-election in Selkirk, Manitoba.

Dr. Porter, late of Prince Albert, is now residing and practising in Dewdney, Alberta, the Calgary and Macleod railway crossing of Sheep Creek, south of Calgary.

The appointment of Hon. Edgar Dewdney as lieutenant-governor of British Columbia is gazetted. Also the appointment of Hon. T. M. Daly as minister of interior.

Rumored that lieutenant-governor Royal will be a candidate for the Commons for Saskatchewan on the retirement of Mr. Macdowall. W. Craig and J. F. Betts, M.L.A., are also mentioned.

A. G. Thorburn, secretary of the Northwest commission to prepare an exhibit for the World's fair, arrived on Thursday's train, to arrange for exhibits from the Edmonton district. He desires to secure samples of coal, petroleum, building stone, gold, platinum, brick, sand, paint earth, soil, timber, lumber, etc.

The first sharp frost of the season at Winnipeg came on the morning of October 17. Up to that date gardens were in bloom, and vegetables showed little trace of autumn. There were two or three very light frosts earlier, but not heavy enough to injure grain, had there been any uncut, and not severe enough to show injury on garden plants.

The Globe correspondent says of Prince Albert: "The crops around Prince Albert are particularly good, being better in quality and yield than in any district I have visited this year. I have driven 25 miles in the country today and was astonished to find how fine the crops were. I visited the farm of Thos. McKay, M.L.A., who will have 12,000 bushels of magnificent wheat this year, that already threshed averaging 30 bushels per acre. There is abundance of wood, water and hay, and the country is admirably adapted for stock raising, but rather too broken for extensive wheat fields."
